

Explanation regarding the release from the Paderborn Integration Point's confidentiality obligations

This translation is intended to explain the purpose of the release from confidentiality obligations to you. We would kindly like to ask you to sign the paper written in German. You will receive a copy of it.

At the Paderborn Integration Point, refugees with prospects of staying receive personal support and counselling. The goal is to improve the chances of placement and integration into work with offers such as language training, support with vocational training, counselling and support.

For this purpose, the Integration Point works together with the following authorities:

- Paderborn Employment Agency
- Jobcenter Paderborn district
- immigration authorities in the district and city of Paderborn
- social services in the district and city of Paderborn
- migration counselling offices of local providers
- recognition counselling offices of local providers

I hereby declare my consent (Section 4a of the Federal Data Protection Act (Bundesdatenschutzgesetz)):

- to the collection, processing and use of my personal data. This data improves counselling and support at the Integration Point.
- I also consent to my data being forwarded to the authorities mentioned above for improved counselling and support. The significance of my consent was explained to me during the meeting. I am also aware that my consent is voluntary and that I can revoke this consent at any time.

I also consent to the confidentiality obligation being suspended for the purpose of counselling at the Integration Point for the following authorities:

1. the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees
2. the immigration authority responsible for me
 - Paderborn district
 - Paderborn city
3. the social assistance office responsible for me
 - Paderborn district
 - Paderborn city
4. the job centre
5. the employment agency
6. my migration counselling office
7. my recognition counselling office
 - IQ Network
 - Chamber of Industry and Commerce (IHK)

The information is used in accordance with the provisions of data protection for counselling and support. The release from the confidentiality obligation cannot be transferred to any third parties other than those named.